The Republicans have secured the Salt Lake theatre for the nights of the 26th and 27th of March, and will no doubt hold the big rallies of the campaign on those dates. The names of the speakers will not be given out yet, but it is intimated that Heber M. Wells, John Henry Smith, C. C. Goodwin and Arthur Brown will be among the number.

Thomas Marioneaux came in yesterday from Nephi, where he had been attending court. It was decided to hold no jury trials because of smallpox. Mr. Marioneaux will begin campaigning for Judge King and will work to the close in Washington, Iron, Beaver, Millard and Juab counties. He is confident of a sweeping victory for Judge King by about 6,000 majority.

MR. BAGBY'S BURGLAR

Christian Minister Captures Daring Daylight Thief.

FED HIM AND LET HIM GO

FELLOW WAS PROFUSE IN HIS THANKS.

Pastor Heard Noise in Cellar and Found a Man, Who Frankly Admitted That He Had Broken in to Steal-Was Taken Upstairs and Given Good Meal.

Rev. William H. Bagby, pastor of the Central Christian church, caught a real live burglar in his house, 578 East Fourth South street, Tuesday afternoon. Instead of handing the housebreaking thief over to the police, the big-hearted clergyman entertained the the week or month. ntruder to his heart's content and dismissed him with an admonition to go and sin no more.

It was about the middle of the afternoon and Mr. and Mrs. Bagby were preparing to leave the house to come lown town. In obedience to Mrs. Bagby's request to investigate the cause of a suspicious noise in the basement, the pastor went down the cellar steps to see what he could see. Mr. Bagby is from Texas and is amply supplied with courage of all kinds, without standing behind a battery of guns when hunting burglars.

The search had hardly commenced before he ran right up against the burglar in the cellar. He was a smooth looking customer and started to put up a bluff on the clerical gentleman, but "Your confession does me good," spoke Rev. Bagby, in a tone that would indicate that an indulgent father was wildly reproving a wayward son. "Come upstairs with me and we will feed you, if you are hungry, and we won't harm you.

Begged for a Chance.

"Just give me a chance, stranger, to show the size of my appetite," urged the burglar. While the clergyman engaged the While the clergyman engaged the burglar in conversation and occasionally dropped a word or two of wholesome advice, enough, at least, to warrant the bold, bad man to suspect that he would have been treated no kindlier had he been in the holy land centuries ago and broken into Christ's house, Mrs. Bagby was preparing a most tempting luncheon for the prisoner of kindness.

ing his self-composure, until suddenly he thought he had had enough and had better be going on his journey. Appressing invitation to partake of more food was politely declined, and the fellow left the house profusely thanking Mr. and Mrs. Bagby for their hospitality.

PRIZE CONTEST.—A prize contest between the members of the Collegiate Institute will be held in the assembly room of the school next Thursday evening, to determine the championship of the institution along the lines of oratory, declamation and composition. Quite a number have entered, each determined to win, and some exceptionally fine demonstrations are to be expected.

ADDITIONAL ROOM.—Architect W. E. Ware is at work on drawings for alterations and additions to the Studebaker Bros.' building on State street. The improvements will cost $15,000. They will include a new three-story addition, 250 feet, new offices and plate glass store fronts and a new one-story warehouse 70x 185 feet. Work will be commenced within Never So Well Treated.

Goldhorn had in his possession a valuable gold watch that was taken from Arthur Balley, who had charge of the Senate, at the time of the hold-up. The property was identified by Balley, though Goldhorn recently had in same engraved on it. The accused claims to have secured it from "Shorty." a Corey's camp laborer, supset to the the man who was shof in the leg on Plum alley some time ago. Goldhorn says "Shorty" soaked it to him six weeks ago for $5, at the same time offering him a gun. He claims that we have the same time offering him a gun. He claims that time offering him a gun. He claims that he never has been in Ogden.

SENSATIONAL AFFAIR.

Hold-up Was Boldest Ever Committed in Ogden.

Ogden, March 15 .- The robbery the Senate club rooms for which William Goldhorn was yesterday arrested on suspicion by Sheriff Howells was one of the most daring hold ups in the his tory of Ogden. The desperadoes enterof the most daring hold ups in the history of Ogden. The desperadoes entered a little before midmish and compelled the two dealers, Kid Bailey and Oscar Collins to face the wall while they looted the place and pockets of the men. Bailey s gold watch was taken and it was the possession of this timeplece that directed suspicion to Goldhorn.
